TfL Rail	Mainline - Heathrow to London Paddington	The TfL Rail service is operating a special timetable, departing every 30 minutes. Trains to Heathrow terminate at Terminal 2, except in the evenings, at weekends and on public holidays when they operate to Terminal 5 as well. Terminal 4 is closed. Please check https://tfl.gov.uk/modes/tfl-rail/tfl-rail-timetables for the full timetable.
Piccadilly Line	London Underground	A special timetable is in operation as Terminal 4 is closed. All trains to Heathrow Terminal 5 also call at Terminals 2 and 3. Additional trains from central London operate to Hatton Cross. Approximate daytime frequencies on all days of the week are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Central London to Hatton Cross - every 5 minutes</li> <li>Central London to Heathrow Terminals 2, 3 and 5 - every 10 minutes</li> <li>Heathrow Terminal 5 to central London – every 10 minutes</li> <li>Heathrow Terminals 2 and 3 to central London – every 5 minutes</li> </ul> There is currently no Night Tube in operation due to COVID-19.
Inter-Terminal Transfer	Terminals 2,3 to Terminal 4 and 5	The Inter-Terminal Transfer to/from Terminal 4 is currently suspended. An Oyster Card or contactless bank card is required to activate the ticket gates on the Piccadilly Line (you won't be charged so long as you only travel between terminals). If you are using the Heathrow Express or TfL Rail service, please obtain a free Inter-Terminal Transfer ticket from the dedicated machines.

Always check online before travelling, as engineering work can affect timetables, particularly at weekends.
