

Terminal 5 Plaque locations

- 18 Vogue
This is where Anna Wintour, editor-in-chief of American Vogue, arrived from NYC in 2013 for London Fashion Week. A cover story worth reading.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 47 David Beckham
This is where David Beckham left the UK in 2007 to play with US soccerball team, LA Galaxy. He won the MLS Cup, returning as a champion in three different countries.
Location
T5C Departures.
- 56 Daniel Craig
This is where Daniel Craig flew from to film scenes for 'Spectre' in 2011. James Bond has travelled to 146 destinations in 49 countries since 1962.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 59 Team Heathrow
This is where Team Heathrow welcomed a record number of passengers in one day during the London 2012 Olympic Games. 257,312 people travelled through here on 2 August.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 67 Tim Peake
This is where UK Astronaut Tim Peake departed for the International Space Station in 2015, after a transfer to the Baikonur Cosmodrome in Kazakhstan.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 34 The Victorious All Blacks
This is where the All Blacks left from holding the Webb Ellis Cup as World Champions 2015. They passed it down the line as they headed towards their gate.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 51 Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II
This is where Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II opened Terminal 5 in 2008. Designed by Richard Rogers, it now welcomes around 30 million passengers every year.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 57 Andy Murray
This is where Andy Murray returned victorious from the 2012 US Open. The first British player since 1977 to win a Grand Slam singles tournament.
Location
T5 Arrivals.
- 60 Usain Bolt
This is where Usain Bolt, the fastest man on Earth touched down in 2012 on his way to the London Olympics. The plane landed shortly after.
Location
T5B Departures.
- 68 British Olympic Team
This is where the British Olympic Team will depart for Rio this summer. We're prepared for extra luggage space for the medals on their return trip.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 43 Concorde
Just over there, Concorde's Last Flight landed at Heathrow from NYC in Oct 2003. Among her passengers were Sir David Frost, Joan Collins and Tony Benn (yes, Tony Benn).
Location
T5B Departures.
- 52 Gordon Ramsay
This is where Gordon Ramsay opened Plane Food in 2008. He was the first Michelin-starred chef to open a restaurant in an airport.
Location
T5 Departures.
- 58 One Direction
This is where One Direction flew from for their first US tour in 2011. When they flew back in the other direction, they had conquered America.
Location
T5B Departures.
- 62 Gareth Bale
This is where Gareth Bale departed from to join Real Madrid in 2013. He transferred from Tottenham Hotspur for £85.3 million as the most expensive footballer in history. COYS.
Location
T5B Departures.
- 70 Joanna Lumley
This is where Joanna Lumley flew from Heathrow to Nepal in 2009, campaigning for Gurkhas who fought for Britain to settle in Britain. A National and Nepalese Treasure.
Location
T5 Departures.

T5 MSCP

T5A

T5B

T5C

